

DIRECT YOUR GIFT TO COMMUNITY-WIDE NEEDS and your contribution will be distributed among our strategic investment areas, positively impacting the lives of more than 450,000 Greater Clevelanders each year.

HOW YOUR CONTRIBUTION IS DISTRIBUTED

- A Self-Sufficiency and Basic Needs (28 percent)
- B Children and Families (24 percent)
- C Community Health (18 percent)
- D Behavioral Health (17 percent)
- E Aging and Special Needs (11 percent)
- F Capacity Building (2 percent)

YOUR INVESTMENT AT WORK

Nearly 88¢ of every dollar is invested in our community

Less than 13¢ goes to fundraising and administrative costs

THANK YOU

YOUR GIFT MAKES A DIFFERENCE FOR SO MANY.

United Way invests the dollars raised in the annual campaign in six strategic investment areas that work to promote independence and self-sufficiency among the people it serves.

SELF-SUFFICIENCY AND BASIC NEEDS

- People at risk of homelessness and hunger
- Working families who are in poverty
- People who need legal aid
- Families in financial distress
- People formerly incarcerated

EDUCATION, CHILDREN AND FAMILIES

- People with educational disadvantages
- Children and youths who need developmental opportunities
- Families who need help with child rearing

COMMUNITY HEALTH

- People with physical disabilities
- People who are chronically or terminally ill

BEHAVIORAL HEALTH

- People at risk for or who have mental illness
- Families and individuals who have experienced violence and abuse
- People with or at risk for substance abuse

AGING AND SPECIAL NEEDS

- Seniors and adults who need help remaining independent
- People who are disaster victims
- People who are refugees, immigrants and repatriated individuals

CAPACITY BUILDING

- Public policy advocacy
- Volunteer development
